Adhiparasakthi College of Arts and Science (Autonomous), was established in 1988 by His Holiness Arulthiru Bangaru Adigalar under the aegis of the Adhiparasakthi Charitable, Medical, Educational and Cultural (ACMEC) Trust, Melmaruvathur. Situated in a rural background, it has been consistent with the aim of imparting education to the economically and socially marginalized, and to the rural students who are mostly first generation learners.

The College is totally committed to quality, innovation, dynamism and social relevance. Study, Spirituality and Service are its motto. Inculcation of character and virtues, besides academic excellence are its hallmark. Duty, Dignity and Discipline are its watchwords. It is keen that students should shine as model citizens and men of eminence in our society.

This is the first self-financing co-educational Science College started in Tamil Nadu, affiliated to University of Madras from the academic year 1988. To begin with, three Undergraduate courses, viz., B.Sc. Biochemistry, B.Sc. Microbiology and B.Sc. Computer Science were offered. It is significant to note that this institution introduced Undergraduate programme in Microbiology for the first time in the whole of South India. Other UG courses offered by the College are B.C.A., B.Com., B.B.A. and B.Sc. Mathematics.

In the year 1993-1994, the College was upgraded into a Postgraduate College with the introduction of M.C.A. programme in response to the great demand from the local public. Department of Computer Science and Applications has got approval for M.C.A. course from All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) in 2005. Other PG courses offered by the College are M.Sc. Biochemistry, M.Sc. Applied
